to run a stall and make it a fun raising activity. As a hall we are providing free of charge the hall and car park for local groups to fundraiser or just raise awareness of themselves. but we were hoping to get a grant to provide free crafting activities for the children so they can make something to commemorate the coronation and for them to keep. We also would like to use some of the grant towards ingredients for afternoon tea, and decorations for hall and carpark, to add to what we already have
